

To Whom It May Concern,

Almost 40 years ago, our country set aside a special day each year to honor our loved ones – our grandparents. For many, our grandparents are our mentors and caregivers; a great source of wisdom and advice who have forged personal and civic values and perspectives in younger generations.

To come together to honor these special members of our families, we are hosting a Grandparents Day Dance for grandmothers and grandfathers to spend a special afternoon with their grandchildren. We encourage grandparents to bring their grandchildren of all ages to enjoy lunch, music and memories.
